Safety Sunday for Children and Vulnerable Adults

Our Burleigh Heads Parish dedicates this weekend to the safety of all children and vulnerable adults in our Community and beyond. Children are true blessings to us. Without them our celebration would never be the same. Here in our Parish their great participation in our celebrations gives us a true joyful family character. Our parish is one great big family where all including children and vulnerable adults are welcome and find a happy home.

We take children and vulnerable adults seriously, because God takes every human being seriously. Making our parish family safe for all especially for children and vulnerable adult MUST be our fundamental priority and business. Safety for the young involves everyone, not only the priests and staff, but also every single member of our community.

In the meantime, I have appointed one of our parishioners Bren Milsom to be our Safeguard Officer as one step in the direction of safety for all. Bren is very passionate about the good of our Community and I am pleased and thank him for accepting this role. This appointment is interim, which I know Fr Morgan will love to build on when he joins us in November.

I thank all of you who work for the safety of children and vulnerable adults in our community. God bless you all.

Fr Stanley

It takes a whole community

It is hard to think of a more basic and important task in the Church that the safeguarding and nurturing of children. My own commitment to that is unequivocal, and I know that the commitment is shared by the many clergy, religious, employees and volunteers of the Archdiocese who work with children in many different ways.

This Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy is an important step in the right direction at a time when we need to change not only policies and procedures in the Church but even our culture which has failed in the past. What you find here replaces our previous policy, and it seeks to prescribe best practice in preventing harm and ensuring that the young and vulnerable are able to flourish. I wholeheartedly commend the policy to you.

The Code of Ethical Behaviour for employees and volunteers who work in service of the Church is an important part of this policy. It makes clear the responsibility to report incidents should abuse of any kind be disclosed at any time. It also leaves no doubt that training for implementation of the policy and regular auditing for compliance are essential. I would ask each of you to accept responsibility on these points.

Many thanks for all you do in service of the Lord Jesus and his Church in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. May the God of all mercy bless you and those entrusted to your care, especially the young and the vulnerable.

RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION:

We welcome our visitors and ask all to respect the Universal Church practice of receiving the Lord's Body and Blood: the Body of Christ is received on the hand or the tongue and the Blood of Christ is received by drinking from the chalice. We kindly ask you to refrain from dipping the host into the chalice if this is your custom.

We pray together
"Praying the Rosary is a spiritual aid for our soul
and for spreading love, forgiveness and brotherhood
to everyone."
Pope Francis

MULTICULTURAL MASS

10am, Sunday 29 October

Mary, Mother of Mercy Church, Burleigh Waters

FLAG PROCESSION - Large to medium size flag bearers wishing to take part in the entrance procession into the church prior to the commencement of 10am Mass will need to be assembled by 9.30am outside the Community Centre (near carpark). They will lead the gathered assembly in front of the church as well as the Priest and altar servers through the Aboriginal Smoking Ceremony into the church which commences the celebration. The early assembly is to allow Mass to commence on time at 10am.

If you haven't already registered your large flag and country please phone the Parish Office or Josee Hill - 0430 546465.

Our Multicultural Mass is the perfect occasion to wear your National Dress. We encourage you to 'frock up' for the occasion - bringing the life and colour of your traditions and culture to enhance this wonderful celebration.

Children, also please dress up - bring your small hand size flags as you will have your own beautiful procession where you can take part and wave your own small flag.

National Dress is a wonderful addition to our various processions and especially for our very young children who bring forward our monetary gifts.

The diversity of different languages in our liturgy is a high point as we come together reciting The Lord's Prayer in our native tongues and in our Prayers of Intercession for the many needs around the world and especially as we greet each other during the Sign of Peace.

Ethnic food contributions bring rich aromas to the celebratory Lunch after Mass in our Community Centre. This is a wonderful tradition to share who we are, remember our homeland and share our journeys.

Do we have talented Ethnic Groups with cultural entertainment gifts of music, singing, dancing etc?
Please advise, we would love to hear from you.

A WONDERFUL OCCASION OF CELEBRATION AND WELCOME

Liturgical Music for Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

INTRODUCTORY RITES:

Gathering:

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God. When I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee;
how great thou art, how great thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee;
how great thou art, how great thou art.*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.

Acclamation:

We proclaim your death, O Lord,
and profess your resurrection
until you come again.

A VOCATION VIEW

We do not choose a vocation completely on our own.
We must prayerfully reflect on how we can best give to God what is God's,
and then live as though everything depends on God.

Communion:

The Body Of Christ

*This is the body of Christ,
blessed and broken for us,
blessed and given for us.
This is the body of Christ.*

This is the bread of my love.
How I long to fill you with my life.

Drink from the cup of my blood.
Let my Spirit heal you deep within.

If you would live in my love,
hold my word, my promise in your heart.

Gathered as one in my name,
take my joy, my freedom to the world.

CONCLUDING RITES

Dismissal:

They'll Know We Are Christians

We are one in the Spirit,
we are one in the Lord,
we are one in the Spirit,
we are one in the Lord,
and we pray that all unity
may one day be restored.

*And they'll know we are Christians
by our love, by our love,
yes they'll know we are Christians
by our love.*

We will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand,
we will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand,
and together we'll spread the news
that God is in our land.
