SOCIAL JUSTICE STATEMENT 2018-19

Summary: Social Justice Statement 2018-2019

A Place to Call Home: Making a home for everyone in our land

The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2018-19 is titled A Place to Call Home: Making a home for everyone in our land. It confronts the growing challenge of homelessness and housing insecurity in Australia.

The latest Census figures show that more than 116,000 Australians are homeless – something unacceptable for a rich and well-resourced nation like ours. Yet these people are only the tip of the iceberg: welfare agencies report growing numbers of families and individuals struggling to meet the cost of mortgages or rents and turning to specialist housing services, which are often unable to meet demand.

The Scriptural basis of the Statement is Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-35), about an outsider who does something that rich and influential men refuse to do: he stops to help a man in desperate need, takes him to safety and pays for his care. The Statement also draws on the example of Pope Francis, who has reached out to men and women on the streets of Rome and reminded us forcefully of the rights of people experiencing homelessness around the world.

The Bishops consider the extent of our housing crisis and Australia's falling rates of home ownership. They focus especially on those in our society who are most vulnerable to housing insecurity and homelessness. We are reminded that safe and secure housing is a human right, asserted both by the Church's social teaching and by the Declaration of Human Rights.

Homelessness is a challenge for all levels of society: for government, for Church and community, and for us as individuals. Each one of us can make a difference and, when we join with others, we can be a real force for change that ensures everyone has a place to call home.

PRAYER FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE HOMELESS

Lord our God,

You who so mysteriously call upon us
to share in the sufferings of Christ,
fill our hearts with compassion
for those who lack the warmth of a home.

We commend to you in prayer this day
all men, women and children
who suffer because they have no shelter;
those who sleep in our streets and public spaces,
who have nowhere safe to lay their heads,
and who wander from place to place as a way of life.

We pray for broken families who cannot pay the rent,
for those who are the lost and abandoned,
for those on the streets whose minds have been touched by illness or whose bodies are sorely affected by disabilities.

We ask that your merciful Grace be poured out upon those with addictions, those who have given up in the face of enormous tribulations,
and those driven into a homeless life by crushing poverty.

God of Compassion, your love for us is revealed in your beloved son Jesus,
who was born into homelessness,
lived with nowhere to lay his head,
and died for us in agony on the cross.

Inspire us to act in justice,
by all means at our disposal,
to right the wrongs of peoples who are suffering the deprivations of homelessness,
and to see in them the dignity of a brother and sister redeemed by Jesus Christ.

Let us have the commitment, as people of the Gospel,
to be ever mindful of our obligations we have to the poor and marginalised,
to work in your name, O God,
to turn sorrow into joy
and to bring all those who live in darkness into your own wonderful light.

Amen.

- Help defeat the DRAFT TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY BILL currently before the Queensland Parliament. The proposed law allows abortion to 22 weeks for ANY reason and till birth for a wide range of reasons, including "social" considerations. Sex selection is allowed. The proposed law is regarded as one of the most extreme in the world. Currently in Qld abortion is a crime; however, no woman has ever been convicted. Liturgical Music for Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

INTRODUCTORY RITES:

Gathering:

All Creatures Of Our God And King

All creatures of our God and King,
lift up your voice and with us sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
O burning sun with golden beam
and silver moon with softer gleam:
O praise God! O praise God!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST:

Acclamation:

Save us, Saviour of the world,
for by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.

Psalm Responses for Weekday Masses this week:

Monday:

Lord, bend your ear and hear my prayer.

Tuesday:

He has put his angels in charge of you,
to guard you in all your ways.

Wednesday:

Let my prayer come before you, Lord.

Thursday:

I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord
in the land of the living.

Friday:

Guide me, Lord, along the everlasting way.

Saturday:

Lord, let your face shine on me.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST:

Communion:

O God, You Search Me

O God, you search me and you know me.
All my thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When I walk or lie down you are before me:
ever the maker and keeper of my days.

You know my resting and my rising.
You discern my purpose from afar,
and with love everlasting you besiege me:
in ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.

Before a word is on my tongue, Lord,
you have known its meaning through and through.
You are with me beyond my understanding:
God of my present, my past and future, too.

Although your Spirit is upon me,
still I search for shelter from your light.
There is nowhere on earth I can escape you:
even the darkness is radiant in your sight.

For you created me and shaped me,
gave me life within my mother's womb.
For the wonders of who I am I praise you:
safe in your hands, all creation is made new.

CONCLUDING RITES

Dismissal:

Though The Mountains May Fall

*Though the mountains may fall
and the hills turn to dust,
yet the love of the Lord will stand
as a shelter for all who will call on his name.
Sing the praise and the glory of God.*

Could the Lord ever leave you?
Could the Lord forget his love?
Though a mother forsake her child,
he will not abandon you.

Should you turn and forsake him,
he will gently call your name.
Should you wander away from him,
he will always take you back.
